4. Continuous Evaluation of Judicial Officer

a) Continuous evaluation of judgments shall form part of the ACR process. The Programming Cell shall provide a link for accessing the judgments of judicial Officers online to all Reporting/Accepting Authorities on which they can access the judgments of the Judicial Officer of that judgeships. Judicial Officers shall submit three Judgments at the time of ACR submission, the assessing authority may select two more contested judgments passed by the Officer concerned as available on CIS.

b) The ACR process shall include a new part titled "Overall impression on Interview". The Reporting/Accepting Authority may take an interview of officers reported upon to assess the officer on the basis of:

- o Work/performance for the year,
- o Planning and disposal of pending/old cases,
- o Understanding of matters in seisin,
- o Alertness, efficiency and merit.

b) The concerned authorities shall conduct interviews periodically (Physical/Online) for the purpose of evaluation or during Inspection.

5. (1) a) Integrity Column

If the officer's integrity is beyond doubt, it shall be recorded accordingly. If there is suspicion, the column shall be left blank and a secret note will be sent to the Accepting Authority, who will ensure follow-up action. Integrity certification may be made only after doubts are cleared.

b) Appeal / Representation against adverse remarks.

The Reporting Authority shall communicate with the concerned Judicial Officer in case any adverse remarks are recorded in the ACR while forwarding the same to the Accepting Authority. A Judicial Officer aggrieved by such adverse remarks of the Reporting Authority shall submit an appeal or representation to the Accepting Authority in a sealed envelope through the Principal District and Sessions Judge. In the appeal or representation, the Judicial Officer shall not make personal attacks against the Reporting Authority and shall confine themselves strictly to the merits of the questions and facts.

5 (2) a) Timeline

- Judicial Officers shall submit ACRs by 15th of January each year to the Reporting Authority.
- Reporting Authorities shall submit them to the Accepting Authority by the end of February of each year,
- The Accepting Authority shall record the ACR within two months thereafter.
 - Performance of officers shall be assessed for the calendar year January to December of each year. The adverse entry in the character roll/Service dossier of the officer shall be entered by Joint Registrar (Establishment), In-charge of Judicial Officer Service Record Room, for the same calendar year.

b) Principal District and Sessions Judges shall forward ACRs to the Hon'ble Inspecting Judge through Online mode within time and simultaneously inform the Registrar General regarding submission of period of ACR forwarded and alongwith names of officers reported upon. The Registrar General and Joint Registrar (Establishment) shall ensure strict adherence to timelines.

6. Online Platform

An online platform for filling ACRs shall be developed by the Programming Cell of the High Court, with assistance from the Appointment Section of the Registry. Judicial Officers shall henceforth fill the annual confidential report Online. The approved online proforma shall include provisions for recording observations by the Reporting Authority and for seamless transfer to the successor Reporting Authority without loss of information.

7. Grading System

As physical interaction and grading system is already in place, there is no necessity of defining numerical ranges/units corresponding to each grade. Officers shall continue to be graded as Poor/Average/ Good/ Very Good/ Outstanding. No officer shall be graded 'Outstanding' unless the officer possess exceptional qualities which should be clearly mentioned in the ACR Performa by Reporting /Accepting Authority.

8. Special Provisions

- a. Administrative work shall be considered with additional credit to some post having administrative work. Principal Judge (Family Court), Chief Judicial Magistrate, and Civil judge (Senior Division-1) earlier referred to as Sub-Judge-I shall receive an additional 10% credit on the total units earned in their quarterly assessment, similar to the provision already available to Principal District and Sessions Judges.
 - b. For officers on deputation, the Head of Department shall act as the Reporting Authority and the Standing Committee as the Accepting Authority. They shall be governed by the same rules and handbook as applicable to officers of the District Judiciary. However, A.C.Rs in respect of officers on deputation except Bihar Judicial Academy, Patna and Bihar State Legal Services Authority, Patna may be submitted through Online Portal or in Physical Form in New ACR Format as provided with the Handbook on the A.C.R.

c. For officers of the cadre of Civil Judge (senior division) and officers of the cadre of Civil Judge (Jr Division), the Reporting authority shall be the Principal District and Sessions Judge and the Accepting Authority shall be Hon'ble Inspecting Judge. For officers of Bihar Superior Judicial Service, Reporting Authority shall be Hon'ble Inspecting Judge and Accepting Authority shall be Standing Committee. A.C.Rs in respect of Officers of Superior Judicial Service shall be placed before the Standing Committee in physical form for acceptance and after acceptance A.C.Rs will be further processed by Registrar General or an officer designated by him as per prevalent practice.

d. In case of transfer or retirement or multiple Reporting Authorities in a calendar year, each reporting authority regardless of his short tenure/change of reporting authority/retirement shall record comments in the online ACR . If an officer has served for less than four months under the last Reporting Authority, the previous remarks may be considered before final grading of the officer reported upon. If previous comments are unavailable, the reporting authority shall observe the officer for four months before recording the ACR. The Last reporting authority in the year end shall record final ACR of the officer.

e. Unrecorded ACRs shall be placed before the Standing Committee forthwith. Last recorded ACR or report of Principal District and Sessions Judge regarding work and performance of officer may be taken as guiding factors for recording of unrecorded ACR of officers.

f. The Programming Cell shall provide a facility for monitoring the timeline and progress of ACRs, accessible only to the Judicial Officer concerned, the Reporting Authority, and the Accepting Authority and none else. Final accepted ACRs shall also be available online to be accessed by the Officer reported upon and also by one officer of Registry for the purpose of keeping of record and communication.

g. While forwarding online ACRs, the Principal District and Sessions Judges shall also forward a downloaded signed copy of filled ACRs / self-appraisal to Accepting / Reporting authority and also retain a physical copy for records. The Programming Cell shall ensure that along with the filled ACR, the approved handbook/instructions are made available to Reporting/Accepting Authorities

h. A complete copy of the accepted ACR shall be communicated to Judicial Officers on their official email as well as on the email of the Principal District and Sessions Judge.

i. Inspections of Judgeships shall be completed by the end of each calendar year. This should be communicated to all the Hon'ble Inspecting Judges.

j. The Model Proforma of Annual confidential report contains Self appraisal form for Judicial officers[Form-A]/ Self appraisal form for Secretary, District Legal service Authority [Form-B]/ Self appraisal form for newly inducted Trainee Judicial Officers [Form-C]/ Self appraisal form for Judicial Officers on deputation
